TOWN HALL MEETING INVITATION

The Petaluma Police Department invites you to attend your local area Police Beat town hall meeting. We will present crime trends and statistics for your neighborhood and police district and share crime prevention information. Each district will meet the officers specifically assigned to that area so you can share your concerns about your neighborhood. We will also share Police Department volunteer opportunities and community event information.

Please use the link below to identify where your home or business is located on the beat map. Use the legend to identify which beat and refer to below schedule for date, time, and location of the meeting in your area.
