Petaluma – Next week, Petaluma Community Relations Council is set to host its second 90-minute Candidates Night forum -- offering voters the opportunity to hear from the Petaluma City Council candidates.

Candidates running for Petaluma City Council include: Incumbents Mike Healy, Gabe Kearney, and Kathleen Miller; and challengers, Brian Barnacle, Robert Conklin, Susan Kirks, Dennis Pocekay, and Lizzie Wallack.

LIVE WEBINAR:

DATE: Tuesday September 29, 2020

TIME: 4:30 pm – 6:00pm

VENUE: Webinar

The September 29th event will address Governance, including Policing, Community Equity, and Youth Leadership; and the City of Petaluma Budget - to include Future Planning, Covid-19 Recovery, and Tax measures on the November ballot.

To make certain the events starts promptly at 4:30 pm, audience members may join the Webinar starting at 4:10 pm. Those who wish to hear from all eight candidates will be taken to a waiting room before the forum begins.

Rabbi Ted Feldman, PCRC Chair, will serve as host, and Ted Keys will serve as the event facilitator.
